 5:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy Church

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at OLM for 100 of our young adults. We welcome Bishop John Noonan of Orlando who has traveled to be with us and celebrate the Confirmation Mass on Sunday at 5:00PM. We also offer our prayers and congratulations to our Confirmation Candidates, their chosen Sponsors and their families.

It is a great occasion of joy, faith and hope for the newly confirmed, our parish and our Church as we celebrate Confirmation. These young adults from our parish receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit as they confirm their Catholic Faith first given to them at Baptism.

At the Confirmation Mass, Bishop Noonan will lead them in a re-affirmation of their baptismal promises. These promises were made when they were infants, but now they will have the responsibility of making them in their own name while they stand on their own two feet.

Just as Baptism gives new life, Eucharist nourishes life, and Reconciliation restores life when it is broken, Confirmation strengthens that life by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is about strengthening what God has given, and continues to give, to his sons and daughters.

The Sacrament of Confirmation is not the Catholic equivalent to the Jewish bar mitzvah. Confirmation is not a "coming of age" celebration. True, most young people are just beginning to pass into early adulthood when they receive the sacrament. But Confirmation is not about coming of age. Reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation does not mark the end of seeking faith and understanding. We never outgrow a need for a deeper knowledge and appreciation of our faith.

The Sacrament of Confirmation is not a rite of passage, nor a graduation from religion class, nor a ratification of a personal faith choice. Rather, it's all about what God is doing for his beloved daughters and sons.

In Confirmation, God is strengthening the divine life which he gave at Baptism, nourishing us in the Eucharist, and reconciling with us in Penance. God does this so that we might better defend and witness to the faith through the gifts and workings of the Holy Spirit. And there are—and will be—many situations where we and these newly Confirmed are called upon to defend and witness to our faith.

The Sacrament of Confirmation helps us remain faithful to our baptismal commitment to bear witness to Christ and to serve others in love and with charity. The gifts of the Holy Spirit received at Confirmation are virtuous strengths required to live as a Christian. They help a Catholic disciple lead a life of faith that is both fruitful and complete. Thus wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord, are the divine aids to living a joyful and faithful Catholic life.

So please pray for our newly Confirmed that they might continue to bear witness to Christ, remain faithful to Sunday Mass, and continue to grow in the love and knowledge of God and His Church.

I wish to thank all the many parishioners who made our Annual OLM Feast Week a successful week of faith and fun for our parish family. We began with a great day of golf at the Annual Saints and Scholars Golf Tournament. Neither Fr. Barrow or myself came close to winning it! It was a beautiful day for the 128 golfers who came out in support of our parish.

Our Feast Day Mass was solemn and joyful, and Fr. Eric Silva gave an inspiring homily on mercy. The Holy Hour of Mercy with our OLM Adult and Children's Choirs singing sacred music in honor of Mary was truly beautiful. We thank Fr. Brendan Rowley for his outstanding reflection on living a life a mercy.

The Act of Mercy saw a great group of parishioners both young and old make hundreds of sandwiches and provide new socks for the homeless. It was a great work of mercy and many benefited from it.

And our Octoberfest saw a couple hundred parishioners enjoying a night of fun as a parish family. Truly a great evening of fun and food as we welcome the month dedicated to our patroness, Mother Mary! Join us for October Devotions on Monday at 7:00PM. Be well. Do good. God Bless. Go Pats! Oremus pro invicem!

What are the Charisms?

This week we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for our ninth grade students. Confirmation seals us with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit acts in our lives in many ways. In Catholic Theology we distinguish between the infused virtues (faith, hope, charity, and the infused cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, temperance and fortitude), the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and the Charisms. We do not speak often about the charisms these days. Traditionally there are nine Charisms based on Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians chapter 12. Some of these include “a discourse of wisdom” (an ability to speak articulately), Charisms of healing, effective deeds of power, prophecy (an ability to speak God’s word in the present), the discernment of spirits, speaking in tongues, and the interpretation of tongues.

Importantly, all who are in sanctifying grace have the infused virtues and all seven gifts. But not all who are in sanctifying grace have the Charisms. Some may have one Charism for a time, then another, and then no Charism, etc. In other words, they are not stable gifts or permanent dispositions. The Charisms, unlike the gifts and infused virtues, are simply acts induced by the Spirit whenever He wants. Charisms may occur in saints or sinners. Hence, displaying a charism does not necessarily indicate the holiness of the individual. Balaam in the Book of Numbers is a classic example of a wicked man, who nonetheless had the Charism of Prophecy. Rather, the Spirit induces a Charism for the upbuilding of the Church, the good of men, and for the needs of the world. Many of the baptized receive a Charism at some point in their life.

While Charisms build up the Church, all Charisms need to be confirmed as authentic by the Church. A person can claim to have the gift of tongues, but the authenticity of the claim depends on the Church’s acknowledgement and authority. Likewise, we need to be careful to distinguish the authentic activity of the Holy Spirit from emotional or psychological episodes. The Holy Spirit is sovereign and we do not control when He acts. Further, in the spiritual life, more attention should be paid to the infused virtues and the gifts, rather than on the Charisms. Remember that Charisms are directly ordered to the Church’s mission and not to the sanctification of the person. A fixation on the Charisms can become an obstacle to one’s growth in the spiritual life (particularly regarding one’s ego and pride). As St. Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 13, “If I speak in human and angelic tongues but do not have love [i.e. the Supernatural Virtue of Charity], I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.”
