The Nativity of the Lord

4:00PM The Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy Parish

Dear Parishioners:

It's Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent., The word "gaudete" is derived from the Latin words "gaudium," joy, and "gaudeo," to rejoice. The nearness of the feast of Christmas is the reason for this great joy. The Latin word "Gaudete" is taken from the Entrance Antiphon: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near." It is often called Rose Sunday because of the color of the vestments.

Advent is the season of preparing for the arrival of the Lord Jesus, his first and second coming. On Gaudete Sunday, we rejoice that "the Lord is near." This year, Advent is particularly shorter because Christmas falls on a Monday.

Pope Francis, preaching on Gaudete Sunday, said: "To have this joy in preparation for Christmas, first, pray. Second, give thanks to the Lord. Third, think of how we can go to others to bring unity, peace, and joy. This is the joy of the Christian."

We live in a world preoccupied with happiness, not joy. Every decision—even the stupid and sinful—is typically driven by the idea that whatever we do leads us to happiness. There is a good reason: God wants us to be happy in this life and the next. Yet, there is a difference between happiness and joy.

The Lord doesn't speak about happiness. Jesus speaks only about joy and not simply in passing. In the Gospel of John, we hear the words of Jesus: "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full." Jesus offers these final words to his apostles at the Last Supper before his Passion and Crucifixion.

A difference between joy and happiness is that joy is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Happiness is not. In many ways, happiness depends on us. But joy, on the other hand, is entirely different. Joy doesn't come from us. Joy isn't a mere feeling, a fleeting pleasure, or a momentary emotional response, as is happiness.

Joy is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. When the Holy Spirit is active in our lives, we experience joy as well as peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, self-control, and all the other fruits of the Holy Spirit. These are not mere feelings of pleasure or delight.

Happiness is but a consequence, not a way of being. Everyone desires to be happy and hopes that happiness might be the final goal in life. But being happy does not lead us there. After all, we can't practice happiness; either we have it or we don't. On the other hand, we can practice joy in our lives thanks to the Holy Spirit. St. Pope John Paul II said: "God made us for joy!"

Let us celebrate the coming Feast of Christmas with joy! It will soon be here, as Christmas Day is just a week from this Monday! When Christmas falls on a Monday, we joyfully attend Mass twice the same weekend, once for the Fourth Sunday of Advent and then again for Christmas.

Thus, the Masses next Saturday at 4:00 pm and Sunday at 7:30 am, 9:00 am, and 10:30 am fulfill the Sunday obligation for the Fourth Sunday of Advent. While the obligation to attend Mass on Christmas begins on Sunday, Christmas Eve, with the 4:00 pm Vigil Mass, preceded by a concert by our OLM School Children's Choir.

The Christmas Mass at night is at Midnight and is preceded by a concert by our OLM Choir and the guest orchestra. It is always a solemn and beautiful Mass, so please join us on Christmas Eve at 11:30 pm for the concert, followed by Midnight Mass. Christmas Day Masses are at 7:30am, 9:00am, and 10:30am. Keep the Mass in Christmas!

These Late Advent Days are the perfect opportunity to make a good Confession. Prepare yourself and your soul to welcome the Messiah at Christmas. Welcome Him with a clear conscience and clean heart. Pope Saint John Paul II said: "Confession is an act of honesty and courage - an act of entrusting ourselves, beyond sin, to the mercy of a loving and forgiving God."

This Monday evening, we have four priests, including three Dominican Friars, hearing Confessions from 6:00 pm until 8:00 pm. And next Saturday, two priests are hearing Confessions from 2:00 pm until 4:00 pm. The forgiveness of our sins by the Merciful Messiah makes our Christmas more meaningful and joyful.

Do good. Be well. God Bless. "Again, I say rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near!"

Father Healey

3rd Sunday of Advent

The traditional name for the Third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday. The name comes from Gaudete in Domino semper, Latin for “Rejoice in the Lord always,” opening words of today’s entrance antiphon (brief scriptural text that is usually replaced by an opening hymn).

Because one of Advent’s tasks is to prepare us for Christ’s return at the end of time, this season once had a penitential quality similar to that of Lent. Gaudete Sunday with its rose vestments and relaxation of austerities softened the period and gave a glimpse of its fulfillment just as its counterpart, Laetare Sunday, did at the midpoint of Lent.

Viewed now as a season of devout and joyful expectation, Advent retains very little of its old penitential focus, but we still have the option of using the liturgical color of rose today as we rejoice that Christmas is near, and Christ’s second coming is nearer than it was yesterday.

Christmas Confession

MANY CATHOLICS go to confession as part of their preparation for Christmas. A lot of people who shop, bake, mail, and party throughout December know there is a deeper reason for all this activity. They want to do more than decorate the house and set the table. They want to prepare their hearts so that the King of Kings will find in there a home.

Your parish probably sets aside extra time for confessions in December. Priests usually hear individual confessions on Saturday afternoon. But they gather people for a communal penance service on some other evening of the week this time of year. During the week or ten days before Christmas, you should be able to find confessions scheduled at your parish or in another one nearby.

As an alternative, you may ask a priest for a special appointment to hear your confession. Some people do this if they are not free when the parish confessions are scheduled, or if they would like to spend a little more time to confess their sins and discuss their spiritual life with a priest. Priests are busy, especially during the week before Christmas, but they will want to help you if they can.

If Christmas comes, and you still haven't gone to confession, it is never too late. The good news is you can always go. If your experience of Christmas this year touches your heart; if you are moved by the spirit of gift-giving by family, friends, and strangers; if you realize more deeply that God loved you enough to send you Jesus—then open your heart. See God's glory. Acknowledge your weakness. Confess your sins. And rejoice in the grace of forgiveness.
